This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

How to Prepare Your Manuscript

A manuscript must be TYPEWRITTEN on one side of the paper only, using double space.

Use white paper, letter size, about 8½x11 inches.

If you do not have a chance to have your play typewritten, we have a department which will do it for you.

Never roll your manuscript, fasten with clip or pin. Fold twice, using legal size envelopes.

Always send a stamped and addressed envelope, if you wish your play or story returned, in case it is not accepted.

This envelope must be a trifle smaller than the other, so it will not have to be creased. Creasing often breaks an envelope and then your manuscript would be lost in the mail.

Yellow Manilla envelopes are good to use. No. 11, with No. 10 for inclosures. See writer's outfit page 54.

Write your name and address in the left hand corner on the first and last sheets of each manuscript. Don't trust to a letter or return envelope.

Make and keep a carbon copy of your manuscript to guard against loss.

Never under any condition send a MSS. written with pencil.

A MSS. legibly written in ink will be read, but a typewritten one has a better chance for a sale.

Always be sure and put enough postage on all your MSS.

MSS. of Books are usually sent by express prepaid.

When sending to a foreign country a MSS. must be typewritten and fastened tight with tag, so that the pages are not loose.

Postage for return must be in the stamps of country sent to, or a money order.

English publishers wish a MSS. flat; not rolled or folded.

Never send a MSS. to more than one publisher at a time.

THE BLACK CAT

has immediate use for stories of from 1000 to 5000 words in length—detective stories, stories of mystery, love stories, in fact any story that is so concisely and convincingly told as to absorb the attention from start to finish.

No story can be considered that has appeared in print, either wholly or in part, in any language. We judge stories solely upon their merits as stories without regard for the name or reputation of the writer. We do not pay by the word, but by the worth, and we pay promptly upon acceptance. Manuscripts must be sent fully prepaid and be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope for their return in case they are found unavailable.

Foreword.

The following lists are made up after careful study and consultation with various editors.

One good way for the writer, is to buy a copy of any paper desired, study its style and in that way learn what kind of manuscripts it buys. Many publishers will send a sample copy to worthy writers.

Payment is usually made by special agreement, so only an average is given here.

Those papers buying photographs or illustrations, with or without manuscripts are indicated by *.

Many papers have a humorous page and will buy jokes and verse, these are indicated by †.

Payment for photographs is $1.00 up.

AGRICULTURE AND POULTRY.

These papers wish practical and local articles, relating to farms, poultry, cattle raising, dairy, irrigation, etc., anything that will interest and help farmers.

Payment is low. Many pay ¼ of a cent per word, some give as high as $25.00 per 1,000 words.

All desire short articles, near 500 words. A few like stories that will interest farmer's families, some jokes also are bought.

NEWSPAPERS.

The newspaper in your own town is always a good place to start. Most papers buy articles of questions of the hour and anecdotes of prominent people, few pay for verse. Nearly all get their supply of fiction from syndicates and yet many buy direct.

This list gives daily papers which have a large and world-wide circulation. They often buy direct from writer. Nearly all buy photographs. Payment is from $4.00 per colum up.

WOMAN AND HOME.

These publications deal directly with matters of interest to woman. All endeavor to aid in problems of home, baby, cooking. etc.

Stories should be along these lines and never over 3,000 words, unless a serial. Practical articles of 100 to 300 words are most desired. Many conduct prize contests.

Prices vary, some pay 50 cents for a useful household hint, but the average is ½ a cent per word.

HYMN PUBLISHERS.

This is a good field and not overcrowded. A hymn sells better if it has the music attached, but will sell without.

Special services for church days and celebrations like Christmas and Easter make a constant demand for new hymns and songs.

All these publishers are reliable and most pay upon acceptance. Prices differ so, that none are given here. It depends upon the worth of the song.

MUSIC PUBLISHERS.

This is a list of reliable firms. In songs, most prefer music with the words. In the GENERAL list, organ, violin, in fact all kinds of instrumental and vocal publishers are given, but Mss. must be of a superior quality.

The POPULAR list publish lighter and catchy songs of the day.

The NEW WRITER'S list gives firms who are painstaking with amateur songs, and often publish where large firms are looking for well-known writer's work.

Prices are wholly by arrangement and usually on a royalty basis.

SYNDICATES.

Below are given most reliable firms, they rarely consider a single manuscript, but take them in dozen lots. Articles of 1,000 words or less are always in demand. All prefer illustrations of some sort.

Payment is wholly by arrangement, when on the commission basis, the writer usually has ½ of gross receipts.

PLAY PRODUCERS.

This list gives all reliable firms. The best idea is for he writer to deal direct with the producer. Another good ray is to get some local club or church benefit to use our play and see how the public like it. Sometimes a mall stock company will "try it out."

Prices paid are wholly a matter of worth and range rom $25.00 up to thousands.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO AUTHORS

WE are especially interested in poetry and the drama. We print and publish books of all kinds, we sell books and magazines of all kinds in The Studio Bookshop, but we are making a specialty of poetry and the drama. Our monthly magazine, THE POETRY JOURNAL, contains in each issue 15 to 25 pages of the best original poetry; reviews by unbiased critics, of notable new volumes of verse; selections from current magazines and new books; pertinent selections from the poetic opinion of all time in the Counsellors' Tavern; and book and magazine lists. The editors are Edmund R. Brown, Edward J. O'Brien, and Blanche Shoemaker Wagstaff. The monthly selections of verse of distinction from magazines are made by William Stanley Braithwaite. In the Studio Bookshop at 68 Pemberton Square, Boston, we have a stock of the best books and magazines of contemporary poetry and drama, both American and foreign. Our magazine rack contains periodicals seldom found on the news stands. We are glad to supply books of all kinds to customers, but we are particularly glad to answer inquiries about poetry and drama. We will be pleased to send you a sample copy of THE POETRY JOURNAL, a copy of our Studio Bookshop Bargain Catalog, and a list of our own book publications, which include volumes by Richard LeGallienne, Gilbert Moyle, Richard Aldington, Lewis Worthington Smith, William Schuyler, Alfred Shrubb, Amelia J. Burr, Gordon Bottomley, Henrik Ibsen, and many others. We are also always glad to confer with authors about the issue of limited and privately issued editions, for which we have complete facilities in our factory at Norwood, Mass.
